SUBJECT: Reason to Believe Recommendation -
Failure to File 48-Hour Notices under the Administrative Fine Program

Attached is the name of a principal campaign committee that has failed to file 48-hour notices with the Commission for contributions of $1,000.00 or more received from the close of books for the Arkansas 12 Day Pre-Runoff Report up to 48 hours before the June 8, 2010 Runoff Election in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and 11 CFR. § 104.5(f). The committee, Tim Wooldridge for Congress, represents a candidate who lost the Runoff Election. The committee is being referred for failing to file 48-hour notices for contributions totaling $27,200.00.

A 48-hour notice is required to report all contributions of a $1,000.00 or more, to any authorized committee of a candidate, including contributions from the candidate, loans from the candidate and other non-bank sources and endorsements or guarantees of loans from banks, as per, 11 CFR § 104.5(f).

We have attached an information sheet which includes the contributor name, date of receipt and amount of the contributions for which a 48-hour notice was not filed.

In accordance with the schedule of civil money penalties outlined within 11 CFR § 111.44, this committee should be assessed the civil money penalty so indicated.

Attachment 1

1. Find reason to believe that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and make a preliminary determination that a civil money penalty of $3,812.00 be assessed.
2. Send the appropriate letter.

Dear Mr. Partlow:

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq. ("the Act"), requires principal campaign committees of candidates for federal office to notify in writing either the Secretary of the Senate or the Federal Election Commission ("FEC"), and the Secretary of State, as appropriate, of any contribution of $1,000 or more, received by any authorized committee of the candidate after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before, any election. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A). The Act further requires notification to be made within 48 hours after the receipt of the contribution and to include the name of the candidate and office sought, the date of receipt, the amount of the contribution, and the identification of the contributor. Id. These notification requirements are in addition to all other reporting requirements. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a). Our records indicate that Tim Wooldridge for Congress did not submit 48-Hour Notices for contributions of $1,000 or more, received between May 20, 2010 and June 5, 2010, totaling $27,200, as required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A). Attachment 1.

The Act permits the FEC to impose civil money penalties for violations of the reporting requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a). 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4). On September 2, 2011, the FEC found that there is Reason to Believe ("RTB") that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) by failing to file the 48-Hour Notices. Based on the FEC's schedule of civil money penalties at 11 CFR § 111.44, the amount of your civil money penalty calculated at the RTB stage is $3,812. Please see the attached copy of the Commission's administrative fine regulations at 11 CFR §§ 111.30-111.46. Attachment 2. The Commission's website contains further information about how the administrative fine program works and how the fines are calculated. <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. 11 CFR § 111.34. The amount of the civil money penalty is $110 for each non-filed notice plus 10 percent of the dollar amount of the contributions not timely reported. The civil money penalty increases by 25 percent for each prior violation. Send your payment of $3,812 within forty (40) days of the finding, or by October 12, 2011.

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. If You Choose to Challenge the RTB Finding and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to challenge the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, you must submit a written response, including the AF# found at the top of page 1 under your committee's identification number, to the FEC's Office of Administrative Review, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. Your response must be received within forty (40) days of the Commission's RTB finding, or October 12, 2011. 11 CFR § 111.35(a). Your written response must include the reason(s) why you are challenging the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, and must include the factual basis supporting the reason(s) and supporting documentation. The FEC strongly encourages that documents be submitted in the form of affidavits or declarations. 11 CFR § 111.36(c).

The FEC will only consider challenges that are based on at least one of three grounds: (1) a factual error in the RTB finding; (2) miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or (3) your demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond your control. 11 CFR § 111.35(b). In order for a challenge to be considered on the basis of best efforts, you must have filed the required report no later than 24 hours after the end of these reasonably unforeseen circumstances. Id. Examples of circumstances that will be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to, (1) a failure of Commission computers or Commission-provided software despite your seeking technical assistance from Commission personnel and resources; (2) a widespread disruption of information transmissions over the Internet that is not caused by a failure of the Commission's or your computer systems or Internet service provider; and (3) severe weather or other disaster-related incident. 11 CFR § 111.35(c). Examples of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to, (1) negligence; (2) delays caused by vendors or contractors; (3) treasurer and staff illness, inexperience or unavailability; (4) committee computer, software, or Internet service provider failures; (5) failure to know filing dates; and (6) failure to use filing software properly. 11 CFR § 111.35(d).

The "failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver" of your right to present such argument in a petition to the U.S. district court under 2 U.S.C. § 437g. 11 CFR § 111.38.

If you intend to be represented by counsel, please advise the Office of Administrative Review. You should provide, in writing, the name, address and telephone number of your counsel and authorize counsel to receive notifications and communications relating to this challenge and imposition of the calculated civil money penalty.

2. If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Submit a Challenge

If you do not pay the calculated civil money penalty and do not or submit a written response, the FEC will assume that the preceding factual allegations are true and make a final determination that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty.

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA"), as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. The FEC may take any and all appropriate action authorized and required by the DCA, as amended, including transfer to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for collection. 11 CFR § 111.45.

3. If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the calculated civil money penalty, send the enclosed remittance form, along with your payment, to the FEC at the address on page 4. Upon receipt of your payment, the FEC will send you a final determination letter.

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the FEC in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2). It will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) until it is placed on the public record in accordance with 11 CFR § 111.42, unless you notify the FEC in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

As noted earlier, you may obtain additional information on the FEC's administrative fine program, including the final regulations, on the FEC's website at <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. If you have questions regarding the payment of the calculated civil money penalty, please contact Ian Wandner in the Reports Analysis Division at our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5) or (202) 694-1130. Ms. Bauerly,

My purpose for writing is to vehemently challenge the egregious fine that was recently assessed on my unsuccessful campaign for Congress. First, as you might suspect, I had no personal knowledge of any of the timely or untimely filings of contributions. The campaign had a staff of volunteers that were in charge of such activities. I have asked our long since departed Volunteers, who have assured me that every attempt was made to adhere to all reporting requirements, in the proper manner. Our post-election reports should reflect that, unless there is an inadvertent error.

Certainly, I take seriously all post-election reporting requirements, and have asked the same staff volunteers, who again, have long since gone to other jobs, to continue to help file reports. As you might expect, after a defeat, funds dry up, and volunteers move on. We have attempted to continue to file reports, and this spring, filed a termination report.

While I do not have the expertise to submit affidavits or declarations, it is my hope based on the track record of my filings during the Campaign cycle, when staff and resources were in place, the FEC will thoughtfully reconsider assessing such a large fine, based on our demonstrated best effort to file and terminate the campaign in a timely manner.

There are no funds,....staff,.....activity and it is my hope to finally terminate the activity of the Campaign for Congress in the first district of Arkansas.

I appeal to the FEC to help me in this endeavor. Thank you in advance for considering my plea.

Warmest Regards,

Tim Wooldridge

- Principal campaign committees of congressional candidates (including unopposed candidates and candidates whose names do not appear on the ballot) who seek election in the primary election must file the above reports and notices.
- PACs and party committees filing on a quarterly basis in 2010 are subject to pre-election reporting if they make previously undisclosed contributions or expenditures (including independent expenditures) in connection with an election by the close of books of the applicable report(s).

Supplemental Filing Information is available:

- Congressional Committees
- Parties and PACs

Additional information for Arkansas Campaign Committees -- click here

<sup>1</sup> These dates indicate the beginning and end of the reporting period. A reporting period always begins the day after the closing date of the last report filed. If the committee is new and has not previously filed a report, the first report must cover all activity that occurred before the committee registered up through the close of books for the first report due.

2010 SUPPLEMENTAL FILING INFORMATION CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES

PLEASE NOTE: The Commission provides reminders of upcoming filing dates as a courtesy to help committees comply with the filing deadlines set forth in the Act and Commission regulations. Committee treasurers must comply with all applicable filing deadlines established by law, and the lack of prior notice does not constitute an excuse for failing to comply with any filing deadline.

WHO MUST FILE

Principal campaign committees of congressional candidates <sup>1</sup> (including unopposed candidates and candidates whose names do not appear on the ballot) must file Quarterly Reports in 2010. <sup>2</sup>

Campaigns that raise or spend more than $5,000 for the 2010 election cycle (and thus trigger registration and reporting requirements) must file quarterly reports throughout 2010, even if the candidate plans to retire, withdraws from the race prior to the primary election, loses the primary or drops out of the race prior to the general election. See 11 CFR 104.5(a)(2).

Before a committee can stop filing with the FEC, it must file a termination report with the Commission. See 11 CFR 102.3. Committees must continue to file reports until the Commission notifies them in writing that their termination report has been accepted.

METHODS OF FILING REPORTS

Electronic Filing

Reports filed electronically must be received and validated by the Commission by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the filing deadline. See 11 CFR 104.5(e).

- Web Page: Electronic Filing Page
- Campaign Guide for Congressional Candidates and Committees (Candidate Guide), pp. 82-84 [PDF]

Paper Filing - Meeting the Filing Deadline

Paper Report filing options -- Registered, Certified or Overnight or First Class Mail. See 11 CFR 104.5(e).

- Web Page: Link to Paper Forms (for downloading and printing)
- Candidate Guide, p. 81 [PDF]

<sup>1</sup> Generally, an individual becomes a candidate for federal office (and thus triggers registration and reporting obligations) when his or her campaign exceeds $5,000 in either contributions or expenditures. If the campaign has not crossed the $5,000 threshold, it is not required to file reports. See 11 CFR 100.3(a).

<sup>2</sup> If a candidate has more than one authorized committee, the principal campaign committee must also file a consolidated report on Form 3Z [PDF].

PRE- AND POST-ELECTION REPORTS

A committee whose candidate participates in a 2010 state primary, nominating convention or runoff election -- even if unopposed -- must also file a pre-election report 12 days prior to the primary, nominating convention or runoff. The campaign committee of a candidate who participates in the general election must file pre- and post-general election reports.

See 11 CFR 104.5(a)(2).

- Candidate Guide, pp. 79-80 [PDF]

COMPLIANCE

Treasurer Responsibility

Committee Treasurers are responsible for both the timeliness and the accuracy of all reports. They may be subject to monetary penalties if reports are inaccurate or are not filed on time.

See 11 CFR 104.14(d).

- Statement of Policy Regarding Treasurers Subject to Enforcement Proceedings [PDF]
- Candidate Guide, p. 7 [PDF]

Administrative Fine Program

Political committees and their treasurers who fail to file their reports on time may be subject to civil money penalties up to $17,600 (or more for repeat late- and non-filers).<sup>3</sup>

See 11 CFR 111.30.

- Web Page: Administrative Fine Program
- Candidate Guide, pp. 81-82 [PDF]

IMPORTANT FILING INFORMATION - PAPER FILERS

In response to the 2001 anthrax threat, the U.S. Postal Service is irradiating mail directed to many federal agencies, including the FEC and the Secretary of the Senate.<sup>4</sup> This process has not only delayed mail delivery, it has also damaged and in some cases destroyed pieces of mail. As a result, committees that file reports with the FEC may want to consider submitting their reports by some means other than U.S. mail. Alternative methods include electronic filing, overnight mail or delivery service, and hand delivery.

2010 REPORTING SCHEDULE

- Web Page: 2010 Reporting Dates Page
- The Record: January 2010 issue [PDF]
- Candidate Guide, p. 79 [PDF]

<sup>3</sup> Penalties for late- or non-filing of 48-hour notices are based on the amount of contributions not timely disclosed. As a result, these penalties may exceed $17,600, even for first-time violations.

<sup>4</sup> Senate committees should contact the Secretary of the Senate at (202) 224-0322 for more information on filing reports via US mail.

DISCLOSURE OF LOBBYIST BUNDLING ACTIVITY

Campaign committees must file FEC Form 3L [PDF] if they receive two or more bundled contributions from lobbyists/registrants or lobbyist/registrant PACs that aggregate in excess of $16,000 during the applicable reporting period (see page 1 of this notice). See 11 CFR 104.22 and 11 CFR 110.17(e).

08/01/2011

IDENTIFICATION NUMBER: C00476432

REFERENCE: JULY QUARTERLY REPORT (05/20/2010 - 06/30/2010)

Dear Treasurer:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. This notice requests information essential to full public disclosure of your federal election campaign finances. Failure to adequately respond by the response date noted above could result in an audit or enforcement action. Additional information is needed for the following 2 item(s):

1. Schedule A of your report discloses one or more contributions received after the 2008 primary election that are designated for the 2008 primary. These contributions may only be accepted to the extent that the committee has net debts outstanding from the 2008 primary election. For more information on how to calculate net debts outstanding, please see page 25 of the Campaign Guide for Congressional Candidates and Committees, which is available online at <http://www.fec.gov/pdf/candgui.pdf>. (11 CFR § 110.1(b)(3)(i))

A contribution is considered made when the contributor relinquishes control over the contribution. A contributor shall be considered to have relinquished control over the contribution when it is delivered to the candidate, when it is delivered to an authorized committee of the candidate, or to an agent of an authorized committee of the candidate. A contribution that is mailed to any of the aforementioned recipients will be considered made on the date of the postmark. Envelopes should be retained for the committee's records. (11 CFR § 110.1(b)(6))

If any contribution in question was incompletely or incorrectly reported, you must amend your original report with the clarifying information.

If a contribution exceeds the amount of net debts outstanding from the 2008 primary election, you may have to refund or redesignate the contribution.

Attachment 4

TIM WOOLDRIDGE FOR CONGRESS

The funds can be retained if, within sixty (60) days of receipt, the excessive amount was properly redesignated for a different election. An excessive contribution is considered properly redesignated if (1) the committee obtains signed written documentation from the contributor(s) authorizing the redesignation of the contribution for another election provided that the new designation does not exceed the limitations on contributions made with respect to that election, or (2) the committee redesignates by presumption the excessive portion of the contribution for another election provided that the new designation does not exceed the limitations on contributions made with respect to that election. In this case, the treasurer must notify the contributor of the redesignation in writing within 60 days of the treasurer's receipt of the contribution. The notification must give the contributor an opportunity to request a refund. (11 CFR § 101.1(b)(5)(ii)(B))

If the foregoing conditions for redesignations are not met within 60 days of receipt, the excessive amount must be refunded. See 11 CFR § 103.3(b)(1).

Please inform the Commission of your corrective action immediately in writing and provide photocopies of any refund checks and/or letters redesignating the contributions in question. Refunds are reported on Line 20 of the Detailed Summary Page and on a supporting Schedule B of the report covering the period in which they are made. Redesignations are reported as memo entries on Schedule A of the report covering the period in which the authorization for the redesignation is received. (11 CFR § 104.8(d)(2), (3) and (4))

The acceptance of excessive contributions is a serious problem. Again, the committee's procedures for processing contributions should be examined and corrected in order to avoid this problem. Although the Commission may take further legal action, prompt action by you to refund or redesignate the excessive amount will be taken into consideration.

2. Schedule A of your report indicates that your committee may have failed to file one or more of the required 48-hour notices regarding "last minute" contributions received by your committee after the close of books for the 12 Day Pre-Runoff Report (see attached). A principal campaign committee must notify the Commission, in writing, within 48 hours of any contribution of $1,000 or more received between two and twenty days before an election. These contributions are then reported on the next report required to be filed by the committee. To ensure that the Commission is notified of last minute contributions of $1,000 or more to your campaign, it is recommended that you review your procedures for checking contributions received during the aforementioned time period. The failure to file 48-hour notices may result in civil money penalties or legal enforcement action. If any contribution of $1,000 or more was incorrectly reported, you must amend your original report with the clarifying information. (11 CFR § 104.5(f))

Please note, you will not receive an additional notice from the Commission on this matter. Adequate responses must be received by the Commission on or before the due date noted above to be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered.

Electronic filers must file amendments (to include statements, designations and reports) in an electronic format and must submit an amended report in its entirety, rather than just those portions of the report that are being amended.

If you should have any questions regarding this matter or wish to verify the adequacy of your response, please contact me on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5 to reach the Reports Analysis Division) or my local number (202) 694-1155.

December 9, 2011

REVIEWING OFFICER RECOMMENDATION
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW ("OAR")

AF# 2490 – Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer (C00476432)

Summary of Recommendation

Make a final determination that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a $3,812 civil money penalty.

Reason-to-Believe Background

On September 2, 2011, the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer ("the respondents"), violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file 48-Hour Notices for 3 contributions totaling $27,200.00 for the 2010 Arkansas Runoff Election and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $3,812 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. A letter, dated September 6, 2011, was sent to the respondents' address of record by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") to notify them of the Commission's RTB finding and civil money penalty. At the Candidate's request, a copy of the letter was also mailed to an alternative address on October 6.

Legal Requirements

The Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") requires that the principal campaign committee of a candidate must notify the Commission, in writing, of any contribution of $1,000 or more received after the 20th day but more than 48 hours before an election. The principal campaign committee must notify the Commission within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution. The 48-hour notification shall be in addition to all other reporting requirements under the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(f). The treasurer shall be personally responsible for the timely filing of reports. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d). The respondents' written response must detail the factual basis supporting its challenge and include supporting documentation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(e).

Respondents' Challenge

On October 12, 2011, the Commission received the written response ("challenge") from the Candidate, Tymothe Lynn Wooldridge, challenging the RTB penalty. The Candidate states that volunteers, who have since departed the campaign, handled the filing of contributions and have assured him that every attempt was made to adhere to all reporting requirements. Additionally, he states that he had no personal knowledge of any timely or untimely filing of contributions, takes seriously all post-election reporting requirements, and they have attempted to continue to file reports, including a Termination Report which was filed this Spring. Mr. Wooldridge states that there are no funds, staff or activity and he hopes to terminate the campaign.

Analysis

An April 12, 2010 Report Notice for committees involved in the Arkansas Primary and Run-Off Elections was sent to the respondents at "tim@timwooldridge.com," the email address listed on their Statement of Organization. The Report Notice included the May 20 through June 5, 2010 48-Hour Notice reporting period for the Arkansas Run-Off Election, which required 48-Hour Notices for those contributions of $1,000 or more received during this period.

The challenge makes several references to "post-election reporting requirements" and the fact that the Committee's volunteer staff left the campaign after the Candidate's defeat; however, the 48-Hour Notices were a pre-election filing, which the respondents appear to have been aware of. According to the Commission's records, the respondents filed 48-Hour Notices on seven days for 55 contributions of $1,000 or more received during the relevant 48-Hour Notice reporting period. Given this, it appears that the respondents were aware of the requirement and failed to file 48-Hour Notices for the three additional contributions of $1,000 or more received during this time period, and referenced in this matter. Following the receipt of a Request for Additional Information from RAD regarding the missing 48-Hour Notices, in a letter to the Commission, dated August 31, 2011, the Candidate states that this was an "oversight." Negligence is included at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(d) as an example of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond the control of the respondents.

According to the Candidate, volunteer staff handled the Committee's filings and he had no knowledge of these activities. The regulations are clear, however, that it is the Treasurer who shall be personally responsible for the timely and complete filing of reports, as well as the accuracy of the information they contain. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d).

Although the challenge requests that the Commission reconsider assessing such a large fine, the administrative fine regulations provide a formula by which to calculate the civil money penalty: $110 plus 10% of the amount of the contributions not reported on a 48-Hour Notice. For respondents with a prior violation, the penalty is increased by 25% for each prior violation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. The respondents failed to file three 48-Hour Notices totaling $27,200, and have one prior violation for failing to file the 2010 October Quarterly Report. Therefore, the amount of the civil money penalty would be:

$$330 + (.10 \times $27,200) = $3,050 \times (1 \times .25) = $762.50$ ;  $$3,050 + $762.50 = $3,812$ , as was correctly calculated at RTB.

The other issues raised in the challenge (the Committee's lack of funds, staff and activity), do not fall within the list of valid grounds at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b). These are: (i) the RTB finding is based on factual errors; and/or (ii) the improper calculation of the civil money penalty; and/or (iii) they used best efforts to file on time but were prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond their control and they filed the report no later than 24 hours after the end of these circumstances. Therefore, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $3,812.

OAR Recommendations

- (1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2490 involving Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, in making the final determination;
- (2) Make a final determination in AF# 2490 that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $3,812; and
- (3) Send the appropriate letter.

Ms Chacona,

My purpose for writing to try and Terminate FEC reporting for a 2010 Arkansas Congressional Campaign. As an unsuccessful candidate for the 1st Congressional District, friends have made attempts to continue to make reports long after funds and staff have gone.

At the conclusion of the campaign, we dropped the NGP service, and attempted to report by mail. We later learned that since we had "E-Filed" during the campaign, we must continue to E-File. As a result, we were assessed a penalty. Subsequently, I personally have paid NGP for each reporting cycle. Recently, after completing a termination report, and receiving another letter concerning our errors, we contacted Vicky Davis, who was kind enough to try and help a former staffer utilize FEC Software to file another Termination Report. The young man has become exasperated and I'm afraid has quit me. Here are comments from his email today!!

I have been working on this FEC crap for 2 hours and I can't find our reports online, because I mailed them in, and I don't think I made any copies. To catch up I would have paid expenses and contributions dating back to Jan. 1 2011 and I do not have the time nor the want to do that. Plus, you don't correct a 48 hour report Vicky said, I could just change. I will keep looking for a paper copy, although I've looked everywhere I could possibly look at home and work, of the Jan 2011 thru March 2011 report, that is all I have done this year, no year behind 2 reports since they didn't accept our termination report.

It's a big mess and I don't know what to do. I'm sorry I couldn't help you out.

It is my understanding, on a recent report, a volunteer mistakenly assigned contributions to "08" as opposed to the correct 2010 cycle. All other postings reflected the correct election cycle, so please accept this letter as officially making that correction.

Secondly, it has recently come to my attention, that we made a mistake on a 48 hour notification for the run-off. That was done as an oversight. Please accept this letter as making that correction.

Finally, there is no staff, and I have exhausted the good will of friends trying to continue to make reports.

We have submitted a termination report. I'm writing to ask that it be accepted. We have taken post-election reporting seriously, and have attempted to satisfy requirements, but find ourselves unable to continue to report. There are no funds, no activity, nor friends willing to help with the report. I will be happy to visit with personnel as to how we might achieve that goal.

Warmest Regards,

Tim Wooldridge

Dear Mr. Partlow:

On September 2, 2011, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to timely file 48-Hour Notices for three contributions totaling $27,200 for the 2010 Arkansas Runoff Election. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $3,812 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44.

After reviewing the written response and any supplemental information submitted by you and Commission staff, the Reviewing Officer has recommended that the Commission make a final determination in this matter. A copy of the Reviewing Officer's recommendation is attached.

You may file with the Commission Secretary a written response to the recommendation within 10 days of the date of this letter. Your written response should be sent to the Commission Secretary, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. As a result of the anthrax threat in the Washington, DC area, US Postal Service mail delivery to federal agencies, including the Commission, has been interrupted. Until regular mail delivery resumes, you may also file your written response with the Commission Secretary via facsimile (202-208-3333) or by courier at the same address (if you use an overnight delivery service, please use zip code 20004 instead of zip code 20463). Please include the AF # in your response. Your response may not raise any arguments not raised in your original written response or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Commission will then make a final determination in this matter.

Please contact me at the toll free number 800-424-9530 (press 0, then press 1660) or 202-694-1660 if you have any questions.

Re: Tim Wooldridge for Congress
AF# 2490

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am counsel to Tim Wooldridge, and I am in receipt of your letter dated December 12, 2011 addressed to Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer for the Tim Wooldridge for Congress campaign. After reviewing your letter and the recommendations of the Reviewing Officer, my client has decided not to object to the recommendation, but would instead request that the Commission review the matter to determine whether there is any lenancy that could be granted. Specifically, we would certainly request that Mr. Wooldridge be allowed to repay any penalty based upon an approved payment plan as his current resources are insufficient to pay the amount in full at this time.

In investigating the allegations, Mr. Wooldridge has been at a severe disadvantage because his campaign staff has long since departed, and it was made up almost entirely of volunteers. Mr. Wooldridge takes seriously all reporting requirements imposed under the law, and he and his campaign have attempted to comply with all such requirements to the best of their ability.

Finally, as a part of the resolution of this particular matter, we would also request that once a payment schedule has been agreed upon, that the Commission grant Mr. Wooldridge and his campaign termination of any future reporting requirements. As previously noted, the campaign has long since ended, and there are not, nor are they anticipating, any contributions or financial activity as all campaign funds have been completely expended as shown by prior reporting.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience so that we can establish a payment plan. Thank you.

Reviewing Officer

Subject: Final Determination Recommendation in AF# 2490 – Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer (C00476432)

On September 2, 2011, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file 48-Hour Notices for three contributions totaling $27,200 for the 2010 Arkansas Runoff Election. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $3,812 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44.

On October 12, 2011, the Commission received the respondents' written response ("challenge"). After reviewing the challenge, the Reviewing Officer's recommendation dated December 9, 2011 was forwarded to the Commission. A copy was simultaneously forwarded to the respondents. The Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that they violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a $3,812 civil money penalty because they submitted no evidence that a factual error was made in the RTB finding, that the penalty was miscalculated at RTB or that they used best efforts to file the 48-Hour Notices on time. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b).

Within 10 days of transmittal of the recommendation, the respondents may file a written response with the Commission Secretary which may not raise any arguments not raised in their challenge or not directly responsive to the RGR. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f).

On December 21, 2011, the Commission received a letter from the respondents' Counsel<sup>1</sup> indicating that the respondents decided not to object to the recommendation. As stated in the challenge, Counsel reiterates that the campaign's staff was made up primarily of volunteers who have long since departed. Counsel requests that the Candidate be permitted to repay the penalty based on an approved payment plan because his current resources are insufficient to pay the civil money penalty in full, and that once the plan is in place, the Commission grant the Committee's termination.

With respect to Counsel's request for a payment plan, the administrative fine regulations do not provide for payment plans as it relates to civil money penalties; instead 11 C.F.R. § 111.39 states that respondents must remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the Commission's final determination. Additionally, should the Commission make a final determination to assess the $3,812 penalty, the respondents would not be eligible to terminate until the penalty is paid in full, as 11 C.F.R. § 102.3(a)(1) states that a political committee may terminate provided that they have no outstanding debts and obligations.

The Reviewing Officer continues to recommend that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $3,812.

OAR Recommendations

- (1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2490 involving Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, in making the final determination;
- (2) Make a final determination in AF# 2490 that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $3,812; and
- (3) Send the appropriate letter.

Dear Mr. Gardner:

On September 2, 2011, the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file 48-Hour Notices for 3 contributions totaling $27,200 for the 2010 Arkansas Runoff Election. By letter dated September 6, 2011, the Commission sent you notification of the RTB finding that included a civil money penalty calculated at RTB of $3,812 in accordance with the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. On October 12, 2011, the Office of Administrative Review received the Candidate's written response, challenging the RTB penalty.

The Reviewing Officer reviewed the Commission's RTB finding with its supporting documentation and the written response. Based on this review, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty in the amount of $3,812 in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. The basis for the Reviewing Officer's recommendation was included in the Final Determination Report, a copy of which was sent to the Treasurer on December 12, 2011.

On March 20, 2012, the Commission adopted the Reviewing Officer's recommendation and made a final determination that Tim Wooldridge for Congress and Charles R. Partlow, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assessed a civil money penalty of $3,812. It is based on the same factors used to calculate the civil money penalty at RTB. A copy of the final determination recommendation is attached.

If You Choose to Appeal the Final Determination and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you choose to appeal the final determination, you should submit a written petition, within 30 days of receipt of this letter, to the district court of the United States for the district in which the committee or treasurer reside, or transact business, requesting that the final determination be modified or set aside. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(C)(iii). The failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver of the respondents' right to present such argument in a petition to the district court under 2 U.S.C. § 437g. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36.

If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Appeal

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA") as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 ("DCIA"), 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. If you do not pay this debt within 30 days (or file a written petition to a federal district court - see below), the Commission will transfer the debt to the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("Treasury") for collection. Within 5 days of the transfer to Treasury, Treasury will contact the debtor and request payment. Treasury currently charges a fee of 28% of the civil money penalty amount for its collection services. The fee will be added to the amount of the civil money penalty that you owe. Should Treasury's attempts fail, Treasury will refer the debt to a private collection agency ("PCA"). If the debt remains unpaid, Treasury may recommend that the Commission refer the matter to the Department of Justice for litigation.

If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the civil money penalty, send the enclosed form and payment to the address on page 3 within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

The confidentiality provisions at 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. The file will be made a part of the public record pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 111.42(b). Although the file must be placed on the public record within 30 days from the date of the Commission's notification, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote.

If you have any questions regarding the payment of the civil money penalty, please contact Dayna Brown on our toll free number (800)424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1660) or (202)694-1660.
